Dear Harvinder

Our Client: [REDACTED]
Property Dispute

Thank you for mediating for my clients on the 20th April 2017. I was on leave and could not attend the mediation, but was on standby over the telephone.

My clients who had never attended a mediation before were quite apprehensive, they reported back to me that you worked with them to make them feel at ease, from your initial communications with them, up until the mediation was over.

This was the clients dream home so to speak, which they had extensive renovation works done to, with a contract value of just over £100,000.00, a number of issues arose, and they felt that their builder had not completed the works as he should have for a variety of reasons.

This not being a straight forward matter did not help the situation, the clients advised it was a difficult and emotional day, which you assisted them through and somehow led them to a settlement. Which is impressive seeing as it only took you a day, although this dispute, to include the litigation had been ongoing for nearly three years.

I would be happy to use you again and recommend you to other lawyers.

Yours faithfully
